Hi friends,

Welcome to peach season! After a long winter of careful tending, our partner Pearson Farm is reporting one of the best peach crops they've seen in years. It's shaping up to be a true bumper crop with trees full of the big, juicy Georgia peaches you've come to love.

We couldn't be more excited to return to over 200 Peach Stops across the Midwest this summer. And yes, our 25lb boxes are back! There are no planned limits this season, so go ahead and stock up for all of your peach canning, freezing, and sharing needs.

We're also proud to share that there will be no price increase on peaches from last year. Our 25lb box of Georgia peaches will remain at $52. For our customers who love to stock up, it may delight you to know that per pound, our peaches are $2.08/lb which is often much cheaper than in grocery stores. You're not just buying fruit; you're investing in quality, care, and a process that prioritizes taste and the people growing it.

On a serious note, we wanted to bring your attention to lookalike trucks that may be in the area this summer. Last summer we heard from our customers other trucks were going to our Peach Stop locations before we arrived telling our customers they were us and selling them less-than-Tree-Ripe quality fruit. Please friends, stay vigilant and look for our green trucks with the Tree-Ripe logo. All of our events are listed on our website and we never stray from our schedule.

From our family to yours, thank you for making Tree-Ripe part of your summer traditions. Whether it's your first stop or your twentieth, we're honored to be part of your summer.

See you at the truck,

Tiernan & Nataly Paine

Owners, Tree-Ripe Fruit Co.

Isn't All Fruit "Tree-Ripened?"

A conversation between Tree-Ripe owner Tiernan Paine and fifth-generation peach farmer AL Pearson - who's been growing Georgia's finest peaches for over 40 years.

Tiernan: AL, you know Georgia peaches better than anyone I've met. Can you explain to our customers 'tree-ripening' and your philosophy about growing peaches at Pearson Farm?

Tree Talk
with AL
Pearson

AL: I always tell people you can't fake flavor. And you certainly can't rush flavor. Letting fruit ripen on the tree is not the easy way, but it's the right way. Tree-ripening means we let the peach stay on the tree longer—closer to when it's truly ready. That last stretch of time on the tree is where all the magic happens. It's when the sugars develop and the flavors become more complex. That's why we've done it this way for five generations.

Tiernan: But, isn't all fruit technically "tree-ripened" then?

AL: It's not a yes or no, but a matter of how long. At Pearson Farm, the fruit tells us when it's ready to be picked, not a date on a calendar. That's why every year the season starts at a different time. And when the trees stop producing at their best, we stop too. Most grocery store fruit is picked before it's fully tree ripened so it can survive the long journey through warehouses and cold storage. They hope it'll soften and taste "good enough" by the time you buy it.

Tiernan: So how can customers know if they are getting a piece of fruit that's truly tree ripened?

AL: Like I said, you can't fake flavor, so you're gonna find out when you take that first bite if it's the real deal. You really have to know where your food is coming from and trust who's growing it. The Pearson Farm and Tree-Ripe Fruit Co. logos are a promise. That's the beauty of it. No tricks, just fruit that's grown the way it's supposed to be grown. The same way our family has been growing peaches since 1885.

PREP TIME: 5 mins
COOK TIME: 30 mins
TOTAL: 35 mins

INGREDIENTS:

3 fresh, Tree-Ripe Georgia peaches halved and pitted

2 tablespoons extra virgin olive oil

2 tablespoons pure maple syrup or honey

1 tablespoon brandy bourbon, or rum (optional)

1 teaspoon pure vanilla extract

1 teaspoon ground cinnamon

¼ teaspoon kosher salt

Vanilla ice cream, Greek yogurt, or heavy cream, for serving

INSTRUCTIONS:

2. In a mixing bowl, stir together the oil, maple syrup, brandy, coconut sugar, vanilla, cinnamon, and salt. Spoon the mixture over the peaches, filling the center and letting it run over the sides.

Fruit Care Tips

Peach Care

BE GENTLE AND WASH YOUR PEACHES.

LET THEM RIPEN
1-3 DAYS ON YOUR COUNTER.

DON'T REFRIGERATE
UNTIL THEY HAVE SOFTENED.

Freezing Peaches

Peaches freeze very well and can last all year! There are many methods to freeze depending on how you plan to use them, but this is our favorite way.

STEP 1: Cut your peaches in half and remove the pit.

STEP 2: Place in airtight bags and freeze.

STEP 3: When you're ready to use the peaches, run them under water for a few seconds to remove the skins.

Blueberry Care

Sort, Wash & Refrigerate

Sort through your blueberries and remove any soft or mushy ones and keep refrigerated. Our fruit comes washed, however we always encourage a quick rinse.

Easy Freezing

Blueberries freeze very well, and can be frozen right in the box or stored in freezer bags.

Georgia Peaches $52 / 25 LB

The highlight of every summer, our tree-ripened Georgia peaches come from the oldest peach farm in Georgia, Pearson Farm.

Michigan Blueberries $22 / 5LB

Around the 4th of July, our Michigan blueberries arrive! They're too delicate to ship, but they're available at in person event locations.

Georgia Pecans $14 / 1LB

Available at truck locations all summer long. Our Georgia pecans are the perfect snacking and baking companion.

New Mexico Pistachios $14 / 1LB

Available at truck locations all summer long. Our New Mexico pistachios are lightly salted and freshly harvested.
